ORGAN FESTIVAL HELD IN KANSAS CITY

Michael Olson attended an Organ Festival in Kansas City and Independence, Missouri the weekend of February 20-22. Three fantastic organ recitals, all of which were free of charge, were presented by John Ditto, John Obetz, and Martin Haselboeck. On Saturday morning of that weekend, Martin Haselboeck presented a slide show and lecture on the organs of Johann Sebastian Bach. Five students at the University of Missouri-Kansas City, including a former Red River Valley Chapter member, Barry Wenger, performed selections of J.S. Bach for Martin Haselboeck in a masterclass.

By the time the weekend was completed, Michael felt as if he had attended a regional organ convention! All in all, it was a delightful weekend. Besides former RRV chapter member Barry Wenger, former RRV chapter member Mike Garrison (who now lives near Chattanooga, TN) was present.

Denver 1998

Make sure you read about the 1998 National Convention in Denver in the February issue of The American Organist. Costs, phone numbers, artists, organs, venues, dates, classes are all listed for us on pages 45-61 - everything you need to know about registering. If you have never attended a convention, this is the time. With our own convention 2001 in the planning, you need to get in the know. For those who have attended conventions, from now on details of these activities will take on new meaning for us as we look to host our colleagues in our own community in three years.

Young artist to perform in Fargo

Christina Bausman will appear in concert as a guest of the Red River Valley Chapter March 7 at 7:00 p.m. at First Lutheran Church, Fargo. She is the winner of the Region VI Young Artists competition held in conjunction with the Regional convention last June in Appleton, Wisconsin. The final round of competition took place on June 21 and she performed for the convention attendees on June 23. Miss Bausman is currently a sophomore pursuing the BM degree in organ performance at the University of Northern Iowa, where she studies with Dr. Marilou Kratzenstein. During the 1996-97 academic year, she participated in the National Student Exchange Program studying organ with Dr. Jesse Eschbach at the University of North Texas. An Iowa native, Christina serves as organist at the Wellsberg Reformed church.

Student Recitals

There will be many upcoming student organ recitals at Trinity Lutheran Church in Moorhead. The first one will be on Sunday, March 22, at 3:00 p.m. by Jon Mattheis. Tentatively a multi student recital is scheduled for Monday, March 23, at 7:00 p.m. On Sunday, March 29, at 4:30 p.m. Ben Jeitz will present a recital. The final organ recital will be held on Sunday, April 19, at 6:00 p.m. by Daniel Aune. Please come and support the young members of our chapter.

WORKSHOPS

Concordia College is sponsoring many workshops and camps this summer. The adult organ institute will be held this year in Moorhead on June 2-3. The young organist week will be held June 7-11. The summer institute for high school pianists will be held on June 21-27. Contact Concordia College for more information regarding these events.
